17 Introduction

18 On January 11, 2011, Plaintiffs filed an Ex Parte Application
19 to Excuse Class Representatives' Personal Appearance at ENE [ECF
20 No. 39]. In their Application, Plaintiffs Christina Egner and 21 Ronald Flynn request that they be permitted to participate in the 22 January 21, 2011 Early Neutral Evaluation Conference by phone.
23 (Pls.' Ex Parte Application Excuse 4, ECF No. 39.) Attached to 24 the Applications are Declarations of Christina Egner and Ronald 25 Flynn. (Id. Decl. Egner; id. Decl. Flynn.) Plaintiff Egner
26 states that "[b]ecause of a particularized medical condition,
27 travel is contraindicated for me at this time and presents a
28 medical risk to me and to my pregnancy." (Pls.' Ex Parte

1 Application Excuse, Decl. Egner 2.) Plaintiff Flynn maintains that 2 he is the sole proprietor of his real estate business, and
3 "[d]uring this time I generally work six to seven days a week . .
4 . ." (Pls.' Ex Parte Application Excuse, Decl. Flynn 2.) Flynn
5 also states that this period is "critical" to his business, 6 because these real estate transactions are "consummated in the 7 second and third quarter." (Id.) In their Application, they 8 contend that "[t]wo days of cross-country travel presents a 9 medical risk to Ms. Egner and will have a detrimental impact on 10 Mr. Flynn's individual business." (Pls.' Ex Parte Application
11 Excuse 4, ECF No. 39.)

12 Defendant, Sony Electronics, Inc. filed an Opposition to 13 Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application on January 13, 2011 [ECF No. 40].
14 In its Opposition, it points out that between November 24, 2010,
15 and December 6, 2010, Plaintiffs' counsel and Sony's counsel
16 discussed Plaintiffs' proposal that the individuals be excused 17 from attending the Early Neutral Evaluation Conference. (Def.
18 Sony Electronics Inc.'s Opp'n 2, ECF No. 40.) During these 19 discussions, the reason given for the request was "travel
20 distance." (Id.) According to Sony, "[P]laintiffs did not
21 mention plaintiff Flynn's work schedule or plaintiff Egner's
22 pregnancy as a basis for their request." (Id.)

23 Defendant, Best Buy Co., Inc. filed its Response to 24 Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application to Excuse Class Representatives'
25 Personal Appearance [ECF No. 41]. Best Buy does not expressly
26 oppose Plaintiffs' request to be excused from personally attending
27 the ENE. (Def. Best Buy Co., Inc.'s Response 1-2, ECF No. 41.)
28 Instead, it states, "If plaintiffs are excused from attending, so

1 too should Best Buy's representative be permitted to participate
2 by phone, and Best Buy pledges to have her available to do so."
3 (Id. at 2.)

4 On January 14, 2011, Plaintiffs filed their Reply [ECF No.
5 44].

6 Discussion

7 On September 25, 2009, Plaintiff Ronald Flynn, a resident of 8 Florida, filed his Class Action Complaint in the United States
9 District Court for the Southern District of California. (Compl.
10 1, 3, ECF No. 1.) On March 22, 2010, Plaintiff Christina Egner, a 11 resident of New Jersey, joined this action as a Plaintiff when 12 the First Amended Complaint was filed, and she was named an 13 additional Plaintiff. (First Am. Compl. 1, 4, ECF No. 13.)
14 These Plaintiffs initiated and intend to prosecute this lawsuit in 15 the southern district of California. Accordingly, they 16 voluntarily chose to subject themselves to the local rules of this 17 Court and assume the burdens of litigating these claims in a forum
18 far from their home.

19 Local Rule 16.1(c) provides that "[within forty-five (45)
20 days of the filing of an answer, counsel and the parties must 21 appear before the assigned judicial officer supervising discovery
22 for an early neutral evaluation conference" S.D. Cal.
23 Civ. L.R. 16.1(c). The Court, on November 22, 2010, issued its 24 Notice and Order for Early Neutral Evaluation Conference [ECF No.
25 32]. The Notice clearly states that "all parties" must be present
26 at the early neutral evaluation conference. (Not. Order Early 27 Neutral Evaluation Conference 1-2, ECF No. 32.)

28 On December 14, 2010, Plaintiffs, and Defendants, Sony

1 Electronics and Best Buy, filed a Joint Ex Parte Motion to 2 Continue Early Neutral Evaluation Conference from January 12,
3 2011, to January 21, 2011 [ECF No. 36]. In the Joint Ex Parte
4 Motion, counsel for all parties agreed that continuing the early 5 neutral evaluation conference to January 21, 2011, was "mutually 6 convenient for all parties." (Joint Ex Parte Mot. Continue 1, ECF
7 No. 36.) After the Court granted the joint request and reset the 8 early neutral evaluation conference to January 21, 2011,
9 Plaintiffs Flynn and Egner have asked that their personal 10 appearance be excused.

11 After considering all relevant facts, and the materials
12 submitted by counsel, the Court finds that Plaintiff Flynn has not 13 shown good cause to excuse him from personally attending the 14 January 21, 2011 early neutral evaluation conference. His request
15 is DENIED. Similarly, the Court finds that Plaintiff Egner has 16 not provided the Court with sufficient information to show good
17 cause to excuse her appearance at the January 21, 2011 conference.
18 Her request is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to submitting a motion for 19 reconsideration, accompanied by a declaration from her treating 20 physician, that describes the medical reason that precludes
21 Plaintiff Egner from traveling to participate in this litigation
22 and when this information was first communicated to her.

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.
